

Poems read by two pupils from Buckingham Park Primary School at the unveiling of the WW1 remembrance tree on Friday 9th November 2018

Remember

Remember the soldiers who gave their lives,
They protected their mothers, sisters and wives,

Remember the heroes who didn't survive,
Some did not get to say their goodbyes,

Remember the men who cried and cried,
For some never got to see their bride.

Not All Heroes Wear Capes

Not all heroes wear capes,
Some wore burns, cuts and scrapes,

Not all heroes have super powers,
Some risked their lives so we could have ours,

Not all heroes win every fight,
Some found it hard to see the light,

Not all heroes can jump and fly,
Some never got to say their goodbye,

Not all heroes wear a mask,
Some are still scarred by the past.

Lest we forget.
